

Throughout our nation’s history, many people have spoken up for civil rights, including the right to vote. Their voices, actions, and commitment have led to important changes. Some are well known historical figures. Some are not as well known. Some are active in the present day. Some of them are people you know!

Who inspires you to answer equality’s call?

My voting rights hero is...
